

Sostice MFA Program International Student Verification of Financial Support 2013-2014 Academic Year

Pine Manor College must verify the financial support of international applicants before issuing a Form I-20 used to apply for an F-1 student visa. In addition to completing this form, the applicant’s financial sponsor, parent, or guardian, must provide an official letter from a bank certifying that the sponsor has sufficient funds (please note the US currency equivalent) to pay for at least one year of study at the MFA Program. The current costs for attending Solstice Low-Residency Master of Fine Arts in Creative Writing program in 2013-2014 are listed below, which provides an estimate. Rates will change for 2014-2015 academic year. The updated rates will be reflected on the bill. This form is to be completed by the student and his/her financial sponsor and returned to the Solstice MFA Office.
