

PINE MANOR COLLEGE STUDENT & COMMUNITY HANDBOOK
2018-2019

Dear Students,

Welcome! We launch off Pine Manor College's 107th year with a renewed commitment to building community and enhancing student success through a commitment to racial and social equity, restorative justice, and taking a trauma-informed approach to our work. To meet these goals, Pine Manor College has committed to our Initiative for Student Success. Every Pine Manor College student has a Student Success Coach and Academic Advisor to support you and your peers through your college-going journey.

For our community to take shape, we need to first define our community, then work together to build a community that models empathy, listening, and understanding. Our community includes Pine Manor College students, students studying at other colleges who live on our campus, and students enrolled in classes through the English Language Institute and King's Education who both reside on and off campus. Our community also includes Pine Manor College alumni and friends of the college, neighbors, and employees. The Pine Manor College team is extensive and includes facilities and maintenance, dining services, housekeeping, and safety along with the faculty and the administration.

Pine Manor College is a special place. We have diversity of thoughts, ethnicities and races, genders and gender expression, religions, sexual orientations, socioeconomic backgrounds, and abilities. We have bilingual and multilingual speakers and represent countries around the globe. The students on this campus bring resiliency, persistence, and the ability to navigate and overcome obstacles. This diversity enriches our learning and our thinking. It makes us stronger and richer. It can also tear us apart if we build walls and fail to work on empathy, listening, understanding, and togetherness.

Being part of the Pine Manor College community means you are part of the Gator family. A family functions best when we lift each other up and reach out to each other if falling. We need to applaud each other for wins and successes and hold each other accountable for inappropriate behaviors and actions. We need to denounce bullying, physical violence and assault, stealing, and illegal drug use, because it disrupts our community and the sense of safety we need to establish on campus. We need to focus on coming together and unifying, so we can learn. We are better together.

As we embark on a new year, let's model empathy, listening, and understanding; let's lead in ways that make our families and communities proud; and let's hold each other to high standards and tolerate only behaviors that contribute to our learning outcomes of communication, critical thinking, collaboration, citizenship, and integrated and applied learning. Join me in making Pine Manor College our home.

With this as our goal, we will have nothing short of a wonderful 107th year!

Go Gators,
Dean Weber

ABOUT PINE MANOR COLLEGE

Pine Manor College is a small, private four-year liberal arts college dedicated to Educating with Purpose. For over 100 years, Pine Manor College has provided a highly student-focused education and mentoring grounded in the liberal arts tradition. The College focuses on pathways to careers through internships and organizational partnerships and academic programs that instill skills and competencies needed in today's changing workplace.

PINE MANOR COLLEGE MISSION AND GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Mission Statement

The mission of Pine Manor College is to make certain that all graduates are prepared to take meaningful steps in their lives: engaging in new jobs and careers, continuing to learn, and positively contributing to their communities. Students, including those who are the first in their families to attend college, who are looking for a purposeful education in a personalized and inclusive learning community, will find a home at Pine Manor College.

Commitment to Non-Discrimination

Pine Manor College does not discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, color, marital status, age, religious creed, national origin, ancestry, sex, sexual orientation, gender/gender identity, gender expression, class, political affiliation, or disability (in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, 1973 Rehabilitation Act Section 504, and implementing regulations) in its admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, or in the educational programs or activities which it operates. Pine Manor College enforces unlawful discrimination. For more information, please contact the Director of Human Resources (regarding hiring practices or personnel), Dean of Enrollment Management (regarding admissions), and/or Dean of Student Affairs (regarding student-related incidents).

Defining Community

When the Student Handbook refers to the Pine Manor College community or community, it includes Pine Manor College students (both degree and non-degree seeking), students studying at other colleges who live on our campus, and students enrolled in classes through the English Language Institute and King's Education who both reside on and off campus. Our community also includes Pine Manor College's alumni and friends of the college, neighbors, and employees. The Pine Manor College family is extensive and includes facilities and maintenance, dining services, housekeeping, and safety along with the faculty and the administration.

Guiding Principles

The Pine Manor College community holds social and racial equity, restorative justice, and trauma-informed care as guiding principles in our ways of building and maintaining community and restoring harm.

Specifically,

- Social and racial equity = “Social justice [and equity] includes a vision of society in which the distribution of resources is equitable and all members are physically and psychologically safe and secure. Social justice involves social actors who have a sense of their own agency as well as a sense of social responsibility toward and with others and the society as a whole.” (Adapted from M. Adams, L.A. Bell, & P. Griffin, editors. Teaching for Diversity and Social Justice: A Sourcebook. New York: Routledge)

“Racial equity is the condition that would be achieved if one's racial identity no longer predicted, in a statistical sense, how one fares. When we use the term, we are thinking about racial equity as one part of racial justice, and thus we also include work to address root causes of inequities, not just their manifestation. This includes elimination of policies, practices, attitudes and cultural messages that reinforce differential outcomes by race or fail to eliminate them.” (From the Center for Assessment and Policy Development)

- Trauma-informed care = “A program, organization, or system that is trauma-informed realizes the widespread impact of trauma and understands potential paths for recovery; recognizes the signs and symptoms of trauma in clients, families, staff, and others involved with the system; and responds by fully integrating knowledge about trauma into policies, procedures, and practices, and seeks to actively resist re-traumatization.” (From SAMHSA’s Trauma and Justice Strategic Initiative, July 2014)
- Restorative justice and practice = Restorative Justice (RJ) is a philosophy and an approach that views wrongdoing and conflict as harm done to people and relationships. It is a non-adversarial, non-retributive approach to justice that emphasizes healing in victims/survivors, accountability of wrongdoers, and the involvement of citizens in creating healthier, safer communities. The goal is to reach meaningful, satisfying, and fair outcomes through inclusion, open communication, and truth.

As the Pine Manor College community builds and grows, we commit to these principles as a means to approaching all aspects of student success, community engagement, and relationship-building.

College Communication

Pine Manor College expects students to check their email daily. As such, students are responsible for documentations and announcements sent via email. Pine Manor College recommends students forward their Pine Manor College email to their personal email account if that will help students' email communication.

Pine Manor College does not actively scan or monitor students' social networking sites; however, if posts are brought to our attention, students in the pictures, videos, etc. and the students posting the content may be held responsible if behaviors are not aligned with the College's Student Handbook. Depending on the behaviors, amends can range up to expulsion.

If students have questions about the policies or legality of College's computing resources, students can get general information (but not specific legal advice) from contacting helpdesk@pmc.edu or the Dean of Student Affairs.

Clean Community

The Pine Manor College has a beautiful campus that the Facilities and Housekeeping teams work hard to maintain. To best ensure a community environment that is safe, healthy, respectful, and conducive to learning for all, a reasonable level of cleanliness and appropriate conduct is expected in individual resident rooms, bathrooms, kitchens, common areas, and all other campus space. All students, faculty, and staff are asked to assist in keeping these indoor and outdoor spaces clean and presentable for the Pine Manor College community. Personal trash, bottles, magazines, and other items should be deposited in the appropriate receptacles and recycling bins located throughout the campus.

Clubs and Organizations

Pine Manor College offers student organizations for students to meet other members of the Pine Manor College community with shared interests. Campus clubs are open to all students and do not discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, country of origin, age, etc.

Students can join student organizations at any time after they have joined the Pine Manor College community. To learn more about Pine Manor College's student organizations or to start a new student organization, please email communitylife@pmc.edu.

Commuter Student Resources

Commuter (non-residential) students make up about 40% of Pine Manor College's community. All commuter students may utilize Pine Manor College's facilities, participate in student organizations, and attend student events. In addition, commuter students have lounge space in Ashby Student Center with a refrigerator, microwave, and sink to make mealtimes easier. Commuter students may also opt to buy meal plans through dining services and/or utilize the commuter dining space in the dining hall where students can bring their own food and dine with their friends on meal plans. Lastly, Pine Manor College offers lockers on the basement level of the Ashby Student Center for commuting students to have a space on campus to store belongings. Students can reserve lockers through connecting with the Student Services Manager in the Mailroom on the ground floor of the Student Center.

Computers on Campus

Pine Manor College offers computer and technology services to enhance students' curricular and co-curricular experiences. Use of college technology is a privilege not a right. Students must use all college property in an appropriate and respectful manner. The College has computer labs throughout campus for student learning, communication, and knowledge exchange. In addition, the Annenberg Library staffs an Information Commons to provide access to the online library catalog, electronic databases, image editing tools, Microsoft Office, and web authoring tools. All students also receive Pine Manor College email accounts upon matriculation, access to the College's Internet while on campus, and 25mb of web space on community.pmc.edu (upon request).

Students receive their Pine Manor College email addresses after they submit their tuition deposits. Students' email IDs and passwords also log students into Pine Manor College's intranet, <http://My.PMC.edu>.

If students would like to reset their User ID or need additional technological support, students should contact IT at helpdesk@pmc.edu or 617-731-7629.

Confidentiality of Student Records

According to the Department of Education:

“The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education.

FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's education records. These rights transfer to students when they reach the age of 18. Students to whom the rights have transferred are "eligible students."

Eligible students have the right to inspect and review students' education records maintained by the school. Schools are not required to provide copies of records unless, for reasons such as great distance, it is impossible for parents or eligible students to review the records. Schools may charge a fee for copies.

Parents or eligible students have the rights to request that a school corrects records that they believe them to be inaccurate or misleading. If the school decides not to amend the records, the parents or eligible students then have the rights to formal hearings. After the hearings, if the school still decides not to amend the records, the parents or eligible students have the rights to place a statement in the records setting forth their view about the contested information.

Generally, schools must have written permission from eligible students to release any information from students' education records. However, FERPA allows schools to disclose those records, without consent, to the following parties or under the following conditions (34 CFR § 99.31):

- Organizations conducting certain studies for or on behalf of the school
- Accrediting organizations
- School officials with legitimate educational interest
- Other schools to which a student is transferring
- Specified officials for audit or evaluation purposes
- Appropriate parties in connection with financial aid to a student
- To comply with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena
- Appropriate officials in cases of health and safety emergencies
- State and local authorities, within a juvenile justice system, pursuant to specific State law

Schools may disclose, without consent, "directory" information such as students' names, addresses, telephone numbers, dates and places of birth, honors and awards, and dates of attendance. However, schools must tell parents and eligible students about directory information and allow parents and eligible students a reasonable amount of time to request that the school not disclose directory information about them. Schools must notify parents and eligible students annually of their rights under FERPA. The actual means of notification is left to the discretion of each school.

For Pine Manor College students to obtain their college records, students should reach out to the Registrar's office located in the Ferry Administration Building. Under the provisions of the act, students may review their College's educational records free of charge and receive photocopies of their records for a fee that covers the duplication costs. Students who would like to review their records must submit a written request to the Registrar's office. The Registrar will honor the request within 45 days of receipt. The College may opt to deny copies of the following records:

- An original transcript for students who have a "hold" on their account.
- Copies of original transcripts from other institutions.

Students wishing to withhold the disclosure of any aspects of the "Directory Information" must file a "Request to Prevent Disclosure of Directory Information" form with the Registrar's office.

If there is an error in their records, students should write to the Dean of the College.

Academic and administrative officials of Pine Manor College, including personnel of the Registrar's office, may access students' educational records. The Registrar keeps a log that verifies the names of people, other than academic and administrative officials, who have viewed the record, the reason, and the date of access. Students have the right to see this log.

Students have the right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Pine Manor College to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA is: Family Policy Compliance Office, U.S. Department of Education, 400 Maryland Avenue, SW., Washington, DC 20202-4605.

Dining on Campus

The Pine Manor College community, like so many families and cultures, come together around meals. Our campus cafeteria allows students to gather with friends, professors, and staff on a regular basis. Dining services offers three meals a day, Monday - Friday during most of the calendar year and two meals a day (brunch and dinner) on Saturdays, Sundays, snow days, and holidays. In addition to the cafeteria, students can use their Gator Bucks (part of students' meal plans) at Cafe 400. Students can order boxed meals for days they cannot make it to the cafeteria. Students can find more information on dining services and menus at <https://pmc.edudine.com/meal-plans/>.

Getting to Campus

Shuttle Service

Pine Manor College offers a shuttle bus to Pine Manor College Students and those with a PMC ID. The shuttle runs between campus and the T-Station (Boston's mass transit), Star Market and The Street, and The Shops at Chestnut Hill. For an updated schedule, please visit: <http://www.pmc.edu/shuttle-schedule>. To schedule a shuttle bus for special events, please reach out to the Director of Student Services.

Other Ground Transportation Resources

Students are encouraged to walk or bike when commuting locally, use MBTA (Massachusetts Boston Transportation Authority, www.mbta.com), or look into rideshare services. Pine Manor College is not responsible for the services provided by the rideshare companies and encourages students to be mindful of their policies and practices.

Identification Cards and Keys

Keys and PMC Student IDs issued to students are their responsibility and must not be loaned or copied. Losing, loaning, or copying keys or PMC Student IDs jeopardizes the security of the Pine Manor College community.

Students will need to pay the expense of core changes and/or key replacements if the College needs to change locks and/or keys due to losing, loaning, or copying keys. Students may also be subject to disciplinary action.

All lost or stolen PMC Student IDs must be reported immediately to Residential Life, Student Services, or Campus Safety for appropriate security action.

Students who lose or fail to return their keys during the check-out process or any other official separation from Pine Manor College (e.g., graduation, withdrawal, leave of absence) will be charged the cost to replace them and/or change the lock(s).

The fees associated with replacement are as follows:

Resident Pine Manor College ID*: $30.00

Commuter Pine Manor College ID: $15.00

Lost key/Core change: $150.00

*The Residential PMC ID costs more money due to a chip in the card that provides access to the residence halls.

International Student Services

The Student Success Coach for International Students provides general guidance and regulatory advising to international students in maintaining their F-1 student status, as defined by the United States' Government. International students must stay in contact with the College's Designated School Official (DSO) to maintain proper visa status and stay current on pertinent rules and regulations.

King's Education

King's Education "provide[s] a general and linguistic education for young people all over the world intent on studying in an Anglophone environment—developing and nurturing every student to help them achieve personal growth, personal achievement and the best learning outcome for their individual circumstances, ability and needs." King's Education hosts an English language institute at Pine Manor College and offers a Pathways program for college-aged students looking to take one year of English courses and a second year credit-bearing college classes. King's Education students have full use of the campus facilities including the residence halls, dining hall, shuttle bus, laundry rooms, fitness center, gym, and student center.

King's Education students are part of our community and held to the expectations set forth in the Student Handbook. For more information on King's Education, please visit <http://www.kingseducation.com/>

Orientation

Orientation prepares new Pine Manor College students for academic and community success by connecting them with faculty, staff, and fellow students; introducing new students to key resources on campus; and providing them with the tools necessary to make a smooth transition to Pine Manor College.

Pine Manor College offers Orientation for new students at the start of the Fall and Spring semesters. Orientation is mandatory for all new students.

Posting and Hanging Signs and Flyers

Pine Manor College encourages student organizations and campus offices to publicize their club meetings and events in ways that reflect the values and mission of the College. Please post materials with reusable adhesives (as opposed to products like duct or masking tape or push pins) or use painters' tape to ensure the posting surfaces remain intact when the material is removed.

The student organizations or campus offices that post flyers are also responsible to take them down within three days after the event.

Students who wish to publicize their organizations' events off-campus or on the Pine Manor College Facebook Page must submit publicity materials to the Director of Media Relations and Publications at least two weeks before the event.

Recycling and Sustainability

Pine Manor College has single-stream recycling throughout campus. Students should separate recycled materials (e.g., plastic, paper, aluminum) into the blue recycling bins on campus. Other ways to promote campus sustainability include:

- Turn off lights and small electronics when not in use.
- Use cold water for laundry.
- Walk, bike, or use public transportation to get around the campus and the city.
- Only take food in the dining hall that you will eat to prevent waste.
- Take short showers and turn off the water as you brush your teeth.
- Choose to carry a refillable water bottle with you rather than buy water.

Students interested in helping with campus sustainability efforts should reach out to the Dean of Student Affairs.

Residential Life

Living on campus during college allows student the opportunities to engage in living-learning communities with their classmates. Students are housed in villages comprised of five small buildings or halls, each accommodating no more than 32 students. Resident Assistants (RAs), Graduate Assistants (GAs), and Student Success Coaches live in the villages with the students to help foster a community that promotes respect, tolerance, understanding, and diversity. The RAs, GAs, and Student Success Coaches work with their residents to build a community through building relationships with their residents, organizing programs and events that complement the College's values, and enforcing community standards as set by the residence halls, villages, and College.

Responsible Citizenship

Pine Manor College imposes an obligation on all its students to demonstrate responsible citizenship and to not create conditions, which disrupt the educational environment (e.g., excessive or unreasonable noise, excessively large parties, or rude/abusive language or behavior). Students in designated Quiet Buildings/Spaces (e.g., 24 Hour Quiet Residence Halls, Quiet Hours during Finals) will be held to a higher standard.

Students found littering or causing excess noise are subject to disciplinary amends.

Student Affairs

The Division of Student Affairs engages our culturally diverse student body by promoting social responsibility, inclusion, and self-empowerment to make Pine Manor College a welcoming and thriving home for our students.

Student Affairs, as part of the larger community, makes a home for our students:

- We engage each other holistically: intellectually, physically, emotionally, and spiritually.
- We encourage student voice and student influence.
- We embrace a social justice lens; we celebrate, collaborate, and learn from our similarities and differences in healthy, respectful, and meaningful ways.
- We practice responsibility, civility, and accountability.
- We listen, we communicate, and we build trusting relationships.
- We cultivate formal and informal mentorship.
- We aim to deepen student learning and growth.
- We expect and encourage student success on- and off-campus through college, graduation, and beyond.

Student Success

At Pine Manor College we believe that students thrive through individualized mentorship and by having authentic and supportive relationships with staff and faculty from across the College. Success is defined and spearheaded by each student with intentional, strategic goal setting methods. Student Success is a holistic initiative anchored in supporting and advocating for all students as they balance their personal, financial, professional, and academic responsibilities.

KEEPING THE CAMPUS AND COMMUNITY SAFE

Campus Safety

Pine Manor College's Campus Safety works to build a safe, inclusive community for all students. To ensure campus safety, Campus Safety Officers take a community policing approach through remaining visible and proactive. By definition, community policing means "the assigning of the same one or two police officers to a particular area so that they become familiar with the residents and the residents with them, as a way of reducing incidents and crimes."

The intention of our Campus Safety team is to build relationships with all members of the PMC community, so that together, we can reduce the amount of incidents and crimes on campus and focus on strengthening our community instead. Campus Safety's top priority is to keep us all safe, but they cannot do it without the support of the whole community.

Our Campus Safety Officers make rounds throughout campus, respond to calls for assistance, and work closely with residence life, Brookline Police, and Fire Departments. Our Campus Safety Officers have jurisdiction over Pine Manor College property and can issue parking and speeding tickets on campus. The Officers are unarmed and do not have authority to make arrest as they are not part of a police force.

Pine Manor College does not have a memorandum of understanding with the Brookline Police Department; however, the College does work with them. The Brookline Police Department may make arrests when called onto campus and conduct their own investigations, accordingly. Campus Safety and community members may call the Brookline Police for additional support.

Campus Access

Pine Manor College is an open campus as we are not fenced in on all sides. We do ask people to come through the front entrance and check-in at the front booth/welcome gate. All Pine Manor College students, employees, and guests must stop to show their parking decal, PMC ID, or approval to be on campus.

Guest Policy

Students are responsible for ensuring that their guests know and adhere to the Code of Student Conduct and all other applicable College policies and procedures. Students are responsible for the behavior of their guests and may be held accountable for violations committed by their guests, including restitution for damage to College facilities or other restitution as necessary. Responsibility under the rules may occur even if the host is not a participant in the activity or has left the guest(s) alone.

1. No residential student may have more than two (2) guests at any given time in the residence halls. Residential students can sign in a maximum of two guests up until 11PM.
2. Students should register all guests through the online portal, no matter the duration of the guest's visit.
3. When students' guests arrive, the guests should check-in at the front booth with Campus Safety and leave by 11AM the following morning. Upon checking in, guests will receive a guest pass in exchange for their photo ID (such as a driver's license). Guests will pick up their photo ID upon leaving campus.
4. Overnight guests are permitted to stay in a student room only with the permission of all the residential occupants.

5. Guests are not permitted to stay overnight in common areas of the residential communities.
6. Regardless of host, a guest may not stay overnight in a room or anywhere on campus for more than two (2) consecutive nights or longer than a total of two (2) nights within a seven (7) day period. Guests are prohibited from using any Pine Manor College residence as a primary residence.
 - a. Exceptions to these limits require the prior permission of a Residential Life professional staff member. Permission cannot be given by a Resident Assistant.
7. All residence hall rooms have a capacity of five (5) people.
8. Guests with animals (see Animal Policy).
9. All guests must be 18 years or older who are staying overnight.

Pine Manor College may deny guest privileges to any resident who abuses this policy.

Guest Policy for Commuter Students

1. Commuting students are not considered guests and may enter campus at any time with a valid Pine Manor College ID.
2. Commuters may host guests. The guest policy applies to their guests. (See detailed policy in community standards section)
3. Commuters staying overnight in a residence hall must obtain a guest pass through a residential student. In this case, all policies and procedures noted for outside guests shall apply to the commuting student.

Students that have attended and/or graduated Pine Manor College in the past are considered guests, since they are not currently enrolled or matriculated students. Previous Pine Manor College students and alumni must follow the Guest Policy when staying in the residence halls with the exception of special events hosted by the College (e.g., Alumni Weekend).

Release of Liability

Pine Manor College students, families, and guests should use the indoor and outdoor spaces on campus for their intended purposes and building community. Use of the equipment and space by Pine Manor College students, families, and other parties is voluntary and done at the risk and liability of the individuals. Students, families, and guests cannot hold Pine Manor College financially responsible or otherwise.

Bystander Intervention Strategies

Bystander Intervention is an important strategy that you can use to prevent or respond effectively to a risky situation that might otherwise lead to more harm. For any questions or for more support on how to be an active bystander please feel free to communicate with any member of the Student Affairs team.

- Notice the event
- Identify it as an emergency
- Take responsibility
- Decide how to help (see 3Ds below)
- Act to intervene

3Ds of Bystander Intervention

Distract - Do something that discontinues the behavior by distracting the participants.

Delegate - Tell someone else (such as a Campus Safety Officer) about the emergency.

Direct - Directly act/call out the situation to stop it from happening.

Active Shooter or Life-Threatening Situation

In the case of an extreme emergency on our campus, you will be notified to either evacuate or “shelter-in-place” to limit exposure to an apparent life-threatening, hostile, or hazardous situation or threat.

When a shelter in place or lockdown is declared, occupants of any building within the impacted area are to remain in their respective spaces locking all doors and windows, not allowing entry, or exit to a secured area until the “all clear” confirmation has been given.

Individuals may be required to move to a safe location if they are immediately adjacent to the life-threatening or hazardous situation (e.g. shooter, hostage threat, etc.). In all cases, individuals must follow directions given by administration officials and appropriate law enforcement officials.

If the Pine Manor College campus is under a state of emergency, you will be notified to either evacuate or shelter in place via the PMC Emergency Notification System.

Bomb or Bomb Threats

If you answer a phone call and a person or recording alludes to a bomb threat, follow the bomb threat checklist sent out by the Dean of Student Affairs. Keep the person on the phone to gather information, try to contact Campus Safety from another phone or ask someone nearby to reach out to Campus Safety.

If you see a suspicious device, do not touch it. Clear the area and call Campus Safety.

Emergency Lockdown Procedures

When instructions are given for a “lockdown” by a designated administration official, the following procedures are to be implemented immediately:

- Immediately stop all activity (i.e. teaching, group work, meetings etc.).
- Lock and barricade doors. If you are in a hallway or outside, get into a room and secure the door. If you are in a room, do not enter hallways or open areas. If you are in a room that does not allow you to lock or barricade doors, move to the closest room with a lockable door when safe to do so.
- Close windows and turn off any lights, television, and radio(s). Close blinds and block windows.
- Keep calm and quiet. Encourage others to remain calm.
- Crouch down in areas that are out of sight from doors and windows; try to use furniture or desks as cover.
- Immediately put all cell phones into "Silent" mode but DO NOT turn off. Calls to Campus Police should be made only if specific information becomes available regarding the intruder or if the status of the emergency changes.
- DO NOT respond to anyone at the door until an "all clear" email, phone, or text message is received or if you are certain it is safe to do so (i.e. if police are at the door to escort you out).
- If you are directed by police to leave your secured area, assist others in moving as quietly and quickly as possible.
- Do not sound the fire alarm in the building unless there is a fire. People may be placed in harm's way when they are attempting to evacuate the building. Should the fire alarm sound, do not evacuate the building unless:
 - You know that there is a fire in the building (you see or smell smoke).
 - Police or Campus Safety advised you to evacuate the building.
 - There is imminent danger in the immediate area.
- Be aware of alternate exits if it becomes necessary to flee.
- If asked to report any activity, report the following:
 - Your specific location – building name and room number.
 - Identification or description of the assailant(s): Location, number of suspects, race/gender, physical features, clothing descriptions, backpack, weapons (number and type) etc.
 - Number of people at your specific location.
 - Number of injured, types of injuries if any.

Fights and Disruptive Behavior

Call Campus Safety. Do not confront the people if doing so puts you in danger.

Fire Safety

All community members share in the responsibility to maintain a safe community and share in the responsibility to abide by the Town of Brookline’s fire codes. This includes, but is not limited to, the expectation for all community members to:

- Keep all College buildings smoke-free of tobacco and other drugs.
- Keep smoke detectors properly connected and installed at all times. Removing, covering, and/or taking out/tampering with batteries of the smoke detector will violate this policy.
- Keep common spaces and doors easily accessible.
- Not tamper with exit signs, fire extinguishers, thermal or smoke detectors, fire alarms, fire extinguishers, fire extinguisher boxes, fire hoses, smoke alarms, panels, and any other emergency equipment.

- Not set any unauthorized fires on College property nor possessing, using, manufacturing, distributing, or selling any fire producing agents, explosives, and/or incendiary devices including candles, fireworks, and firecrackers. (Students that need to light candles for religious observances should contact the Director of Residential Life at least a week in advance).
- Not smoke within 25 feet of any campus buildings and not smoke in “Clean Air Zones.”
- Properly dispose of all cigarette butts.

Fire Alarm Procedures

If the fire alarm sounds, evacuate the building immediately. Close your door but do not lock it, bring your room key and student ID with you. Move away from exits/entrances. Stay at least 100 feet away from the building or as directed until further notified.

If you see a fire, call Campus Safety. If the fire is small and you have the training, use a proper fire extinguisher to combat the fire.

Do not endanger yourself or others by trying to extinguish a large, well-developed fire.

Medical Emergency

Call Campus Safety. Give your name, location, and describe the medical emergency. Avoid leaving the injured/ill persons except to summon help. Do not move the persons unless they are in danger. Render first aid if trained. If you are exposed to bodily fluids, inform Campus Safety when they arrive.

Missing Students

It is mandatory to enter missing people under the age of 21 into the National Crime Investigation Center through Suzanne's Law. Suzanne's Law amends Section 3701 (a) of the Crime Control Act of 1990 so that there is no waiting period before a law enforcement agency initiates an investigation of a missing person under the age of 21 and reports the missing person to the National Crime Information Center of the Department of Justice. Suzanne's Law is named after Suzanne Lyall, a student at State University of New York at Albany, who has been missing since 1998. (Information from www.mass.gov)

Pine Manor College takes all leads on missing students seriously regardless of whether the students lives on campus or not. An individual will be considered missing if a roommate, classmate, faculty member, family member, or other campus person has not seen the student in a reasonable amount of time. A reasonable amount of time may vary with the time of day and information available regarding the missing person's daily schedule, habits, punctuality, and reliability. Individuals will also be considered missing immediately if the absence has occurred under circumstances that are suspicious or that cause safety concerns.

To report missing students, please contact Campus Safety. If not located through initial outreach, Student Affairs will notify the students' emergency contact and work with the families and police accordingly. In most cases, Pine Manor College will take the lead from the Brookline Police Department regarding missing persons.

The investigation of a missing student can be a long and arduous process. Students can avoid being the point of an investigation and having phone calls made to local police and their family, by communicating plans with people on campus, such as friends, neighbors, Resident Assistants, and family members.

Educational Programming

Pine Manor College offers an educational program during Orientation that addresses critical issues for the health, safety, and well-being of students. “Gator Values” is mandatory for all new Pine Manor College students. The program informs, educates, and encourages good decision-making and raises awareness and prevention of substance abuse and sexual violence in college. First time Pine Manor College students who do not participate in “Gator Values” may receive holds on their student records, preventing them from registering for classes, until they complete a similar bystander intervention program and information session on community standards. Along with “Gator Values,” the College offers additional trainings, workshops, and awareness events for students and student leaders throughout the year in collaboration with the Boston Area Rape and Crisis Council (BARCC), Brookline Police Department, and Division of Student Affairs.

Bystander trainings, workshops, and awareness events support Pine Manor College’s overarching goals and values related to student support, community, and inclusion.

Emergency Notification System

Pine Manor College encourages all community members to sign-up for our Emergency Notification System through the Pine Manor College intranet at <http://my.pmc.edu/>. We recommend community members receive at least two modes of emergency notification such as text message and phone call, text message and email, or phone call and email. Community members may use more than two, if they like.

In compliance with the Clery Act and to ensure safety to all members of the community, the College will report out to the community all immediate and imminent threats and emergencies through the Emergency Notification System. For example, risk of fire, gas leaks, contagious illness, armed intruder(s), or civil unrest. When Pine Manor College uses the Emergency Notification System, community members will receive information on 1) the situation, 2) what to do, and 3) follow-up. These messages may come from Pine Manor College's on-call team, Director of Student Services, or IT (for technology related concerns or when an off-campus person is necessary to assist in communication).

Pine Manor College will conduct at least one test of the Emergency Notification System each semester and clearly indicate on the announcement that it is a test of the Emergency Notification System.

To disseminate information to the local community in the case of an emergency, Pine Manor College will work with the Brookline Police Department.

ID Cards

Campus IDs allow access to campus, many Pine Manor facilities (as applicable), and events. The IDs can also be loaded with a meal plan or Gator Bucks for our dining hall and Cafe 400. Community members must carry Pine Manor ID cards at all times and present them to Pine Manor employees upon request.

Timely Warnings

In addition to the Emergency Notification System, Pine Manor College's Dean of Student Affairs or Campus Safety Site Supervisor will issue timely email warnings when a situation occurred that may represent a serious or a continuous threat to our community, but does not present eminent danger. For example, Pine Manor College would email a timely warning to the community if multiple burglaries or tire slashing occurred on campus.

Timely email warnings will include information about the incident (e.g. where, what), suggestions for remaining safe, and information on how community can report more information if they learn more about the situation. Pine Manor College's Dean of Student Affairs, On-call team, or Campus Safety Site Supervisor will send follow-up email(s) to the original timely warning as needed. Timely warning emails will not violate FERPA, identify the victims, or jeopardize their anonymity. In addition, Pine Manor College will not send out timely warnings if they may disrupt the investigation of a case.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS

Pine Manor College puts students' health and wellness as a priority as we focus on the individual student and the collective whole of the Pine Manor College community. For students to engage in and out of the classroom, students' health and wellness must come first. For students' success throughout college, Pine Manor offers:

- Health and wellness programming and education on various topics
- Mental Health counseling with a licensed therapist and/or social worker
- Case management for students facing adversity or hardship
- Health and wellness resources in the Student Center
- A partnership with the Boston Area Rape and Crisis Center as a confidential resource to sexual assault and rape survivors
- Free shuttle bus service to Urgent Care and access to renowned medical facilities within a couple of miles of campus
- Connections to spiritual leaders, off-campus ministries, and meditation space

Counseling and Therapy

Pine Manor College offers counseling by a licensed counselor or social worker supervised through The Brookline Center to all our students. Each session is about 45-60 minutes and takes place in the counseling office on the second floor of the student center.

To make a counseling appointment students should email wellness@pmc.edu.

While Pine Manor College does not charge students for counseling and does not place a limit on number of sessions, if a student misses two sessions with their counselor, the student will be charged $60 for the second session and only permitted to take advantage of walk-in time slots for future appointments in that academic year.

It is not within Pine Manor College's practices to mandate counseling; however, if students display signs of self-harm (including suicidal ideations or attempts) or harm to others, members of the Student Affairs team will escalate the situation immediately and reach out to emergency personnel.

Students on an interim suspension may continue to utilize Pine Manor College's free counseling services if the therapist agrees to tele-therapy or meeting at another location determined by the therapist (e.g. their private practice, The Brookline Center). Students with an interim suspension may not come onto campus for counseling.

Students suspended or expelled from Pine Manor College may not use Pine Manor College's free counseling services in person or via tele-therapy. If students suspended or expelled want to continue to receive counseling from their therapist, the student and the therapist can make those arrangements outside of Pine Manor College's contractual relationship with The Brookline Center. Pine Manor College does not cover the co-pay for students seeking counseling who are currently suspended or expelled from the College.

Pine Manor College employees looking for counseling services should reach out the Pine Manor College's Employee Assistance Program (EAP) – New Directions. Employees can reach New Directions at 800-624-5544 or via www.ndbh.com – login: SGE3F.

Health Insurance

Pine Manor College and Massachusetts law requires that all full-time and three-quarter-time college students have health insurance. Students may opt into Pine Manor College's Health Insurance or another policy. Students must understand the terms and limitations of their coverage and carry their insurance ID card at all times. To learn more about the College's Student Health Insurance, please visit www.pmc.edu/student-health-insurance-plan

Student-athletes should carefully review the Pine Manor College's student health insurance, as injuries that occur through athletics are not covered; therefore, students should consider utilizing an insurance plan through Massachusetts Health Connector.

Medical Records

Students' medical records remain confidential during students' matriculation on campus and for 7 years after. Pine Manor College will not release students' medical records without students' written consent, except as required by law or in life-threatening situations. Faculty, administrators, and family members do not have access to student medical records.

Failure to comply may lead to amends up to and including expulsion.

Vaccines/Immunizations

Massachusetts requires that all full-time college students receive the vaccinations listed below. Incoming Pine Manor College students and all campus residents must have their completed immunization records submitted to Student Affairs by the first day of classes. Students who fail to submit their health and immunization records risk holds on their student accounts until the forms are submitted.

Computer Ethics and Use of Technology Policy

Computer access and use of technology on campus should align with students' schoolwork, campus policies, and the mission and the values of Pine Manor College. Campus policies that apply in our physical reality also apply in Cyberspace. Using computers and other technology for illegal activities or to document illegal activities compromise Pine Manor

College, Massachusetts, and/or federal policies and laws. Pine Manor College cannot protect students for state and federal violations. This includes:

- Hacking,
- Cracking, and
- Similar Activities

Under the federal Computer Fraud and Abuse Act, and under a variety of similar other state and federal statutes, it can also be a crime to access or use a computer without authorization, to alter data in a computer without authorization, to transmit computer viruses and “worms” over computer networks, to send multiple and mass letters, and to engage in other such activities that negatively affect the College’s computer resources.

Dining Hall Protocol

Residential students must enroll in a Pine Manor College meal plan and commuter students may opt into a meal plan, cash pay, or purchase Gator Bucks if they so choose. Students may only use their own PMC ID card and meal plan in the dining hall; using another student’s PMC ID card is considered theft. Students that misplace their PMC ID should go to Student Services on the ground floor of the student center for a replacement. Students who forgot their ID will not be admitted to the Dining Hall and be asked to return with their card.

In an effort to maintain all-you-can-eat in the dining hall and keep prices reasonable, patrons may enjoy as much food as they like in the dining hall, but may not remove any food, dishes, glasses, or silverware from the dining room. Students are asked to take single portions of each item they select but can come back as often as they like. Removal of food or beverages other than an ice cream cone or a piece of fruit is prohibited.

To uphold food safety standards, shirts and shoes are required in all dining facilities and food areas.

The Pine Manor College Community Standards are also upheld in the dining hall, thus disturbances in the dining areas, including but not limited to throwing food, harassing dining hall employees, or destruction of property are prohibited.

Disorderly Conduct

Disorderly conduct is the unreasonable or reckless behavior by an individual or group that creates a potentially unsafe situation for the members of the community or damages property, disrupts the peace or interferes with the normal operation of the College or College sponsored events, and/or infringes on the rights of others.

Students may not harass, abuse (verbally/non-verbally), harm, or threaten to harm other persons, persons’ properties, animals, or things in-person, via social media, or other means. Students should not intentionally or unintentionally endanger others and/or the College community (including the College’s property).

Students should not lie, deceive, knowingly mislead, or steal. This includes, but is not limited to forgery, misleading College officials, filing false reports, falsification of College documents, fraudulent behavior, theft, and/or bribery.

Any violation of said policy may result in sanctioning up to and including expulsion.

This law requires institutions receiving federal financial assistance to establish drug and alcohol abuse prevention programs for students and employees. Students and employees must receive materials annually that contain standards of conduct, a description of the various laws that apply in that jurisdiction regarding alcohol and drugs, a description of the various health risks of drug and alcohol abuse, a description of counseling and treatment programs that are available, and a statement on the amends the college will impose for a violation of the standards of conduct.

In addition, items that may not commonly serve as weapons but are used as such may also constitute as weapons and fall under the PMC weapons policy.

Hate Language, Crimes, and Acts of Bias

Hate language, hate crimes, and acts of bias with the intent to intimidate any individual or sect(s) are not welcomed or tolerated on our campus. Pine Manor College's policy on hate crimes expands on Massachusetts' Hate Crimes Penalty Act (General Law Chapter 265, Section 39) to include race, color, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, religion, disability, sex, gender, age, and political persuasion.

A hate crime is a criminal act that is committed against the person or property of another because of any of the above named identities/sects. Hate crimes also include any such crimes committed against the property of a public agency or private institution - including educational facilities and advocacy groups - because the property of the agency or institution is identified or associated with a person or group of one of the aforementioned identities/sects.

Acts of bias are incidents that are expressions of hostility against another individual (or group) because of perceived or actual above named identities/sects.

Hate language, hate crimes, and bias-related incidents need to be addressed because they harm individuals and/or groups, undermine civility and understanding in the Pine Manor College community, and impede the educational process. While instances of speech may be protected as free speech, individuals also retain responsibility for that speech when they generate harm requiring intervention.

Hazing/Rites of Initiation

Massachusetts General Law chapter 269, section 17 defines hazing as:

Any conduct or method of initiation into any student organization, whether on public or private property, which willfully or recklessly endangers the physical or mental health of any student or other person. Such conduct shall include whipping, beating, branding, forced calisthenics, exposure to the weather, forced consumption of any food, liquor, beverage, drug or other substance, or any other brutal treatment or forced physical activity, which is likely to adversely affect the physical health or safety of any such student or other person, or which subjects such student or other person to extreme mental stress, including extended deprivation of sleep or rest or extended isolation.

Student organizations, teams, and individuals found in violation of Massachusetts hazing laws will be subject to Pine Manor College disciplinary action up to and including expulsion. In addition, in congruence with chapter 269, section 17, Pine Manor College students and employees must report all hazing immediately. Said law provides:

Whoever fails to report such crime shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars.

Pine Manor College administrators may not learn of all off campus community standards violations; however, violations that the College learns about will be adjudicated for matriculated and/or continuing education students. Appliances Policy

To promote safety and prevent the overloading of electrical circuits, all residents must limit electrical equipment in rooms to microwaves, study lamps, clocks, small refrigerators, fans, stereos, coffee makers, and other small appliances. Hot plates, heating coils, and air conditioners are prohibited in residential communities. The use of surge protectors is recommended with computers, stereos, and other approved electrical equipment. Halogen lamps are not permitted, due to fire safety concerns. Cooking appliances cannot be used in bedrooms or common areas.

In addition, use of portable heaters is prohibited, as all residential rooms are equipped with heaters that are operational during the colder months. Use of electrical equipment and appliances that have been modified or damaged are prohibited due to risk of electrical shock and fire safety concerns. For further details see Suggested Items for Living on Campus.

Bicycles Policy

Bicycles must be secured to bicycle racks and not locked to any traffic poles, ramps, or other grounds or building fixtures. Bicycles found secured in unauthorized places may be seized and their owners fined. Bicycle racks are provided throughout campus. If you need additional rack locations please submit a work order to facilities. Bicycles can only be stored on bike racks or in students' rooms. Students must take their bikes with them at the end of the academic year. Any bike found on campus post-graduation will be removed and donated. If you are a summer resident you must register your bike with Campus Safety to keep it on campus.

Candles (See Open Flame) Policy

Candles (lit or unlit) are not permitted in the residence halls or common spaces.

Combustible Materials Storage Policy

The storage of combustible materials (e.g., gasoline, paint thinner) within any residential facility, including resident rooms, is not permitted.

Common Areas Policy

Residents are required to keep common areas clear of personal property, including but not limited to shoes, sneakers, boxes, bicycles, mattresses, bed frames, and/or personal trash. Common areas include hallways, walkways, stairways, recreation rooms/pits, and bathrooms.

Damage to common areas of the residence hall during occupancy periods, other than damage caused by natural forces, may be the joint financial responsibility of all occupants of a residence hall or floor.

Bulletin boards and the outside of residents' doors are considered common space. Doormats are not allowed, as they may be a tripping hazard during an emergency evacuation. If Pine Manor College staff members are required to remove items left in common areas, residents will be charged for removal. Repeated violations will result in escalating charges and possible student conduct action.

Community Living Policy

Any resident who demonstrates an inability to live in a group setting will be asked to modify their behavior and commit to a behavior contract prescribed by Residence Life professional staff, or will have their Housing License-Meal Plan Agreement terminated. When a conflict arises between community members, residents may be required to attend a mediation session facilitated by a staff member. Pine Manor College reserves the right to remove students and/or their guests from housing and/or terminate the Housing License-Meal Plan Agreement of any individual exhibiting behavior deemed by Pine Manor College staff to be a threat to the community.

Consolidation Policy

Residence Life has permission to move a second student into an open double, a room meant for two people that only has a single occupant, at any time in the year. Students living in an open double should keep the open bed clear of obstructions and property in case a roommate moves in. The Director of Residential Life will work to give the current resident as much advance notice as possible if a new resident moves into the shared space.

Damages Policy

All resident students will be charged $250.00 as a damage deposit per academic year. Any assessments for damages to College property will be charged against this deposit. The College reserves the right to charge fees against the damage deposit based on the condition of the room, building and/or village throughout the year and/or at the time of departure. Any unused balance will be credited to students' account at the end of the academic year. Any charges in excess of the damage deposit will be billed and due immediately. The College reserves the right to require students to replenish their damage deposit if depleted.

If damages occur in the residence hall and Student Affairs cannot identify who caused the damage, Student Affairs will divide the cost of the repair amongst all the residents in the building. The same applies to damages in common spaces or villages.

Decorations Policy

Residents may decorate their rooms. The following means of decoration are prohibited due to fire safety concerns or potential for excessive damages to the property:

- Wall hangings or fabric are not permitted on the ceiling or over plugs, lights, or doorways, or heaters, for safety reasons.
- Multiple outlet power strips equipped with an internal circuit breaker should be used for computer and valuable electronic equipment. Extension cords should be avoided for other uses and should never be “daisy chained” together where one cord is plugged into another.

Excessive use of pins is forbidden, as is use of screws and large nails. Residents will be charged for excessive damage done to walls, floors, doors, windows, or Pine Manor College furniture.

- Students may not tamper with fire equipment (e.g., fire extinguishers, smoke detectors) in the building or in their residence hall rooms.
- Representatives from the College may inspect rooms if they smell any odor that may constitute a fire hazard. This includes, but is not limited to: cigarette smoke, marijuana, smoke of another source.

Representatives from the College may inspect rooms without notice to verify that students are adhering to fire safety. Additionally, representatives from the Town of Brookline may periodically inspect any room without notice to insure that students and the College follow necessary safety precautions.

Fire Alarm/Drill Policy

All residents and guests must evacuate a residential facility immediately when the fire alarm sounds or when instructed to evacuate by Pine Manor College Employees, Resident Assistance, and/or Emergency Personnel. Those who do not evacuate are in violation of Pine Manor College policy and Massachusetts state fire codes.

Fire Safety Equipment Policy

It is a criminal offense to tamper with fire alarms and safety equipment, including smoke detectors within student rooms and apartments

Guest and Escort Policy

Please see “Keeping the Campus and Community Safe” section for details on this policy.

Health and Safety Policy

Student Affairs staff and/or Campus Safety are permitted to conduct health and safety checks of students’ residence hall rooms for the benefit of the students’ and/or community’s health and safety without prior notice.

Behavior that endangers the health and/or safety of residents or others may result in a leave of absence for self-care. This behavior may also result in conduct action up to College and/or housing suspension or expulsion.

A few times during the year, the College must conduct health and safety inspections with the Town of Brookline and/or for the close of a semester. During that time, residential life staff, facilities, and/or Town of Brookline representatives will walk through all of the halls to assess the safety and security of the building.

Any campus violations noted during these inspections are the responsibility of the students in the assigned room.

The College may also use trained dogs to assist in the health and safety of the community (e.g., bed bug inspections; drug and gun safety, prevention, and/or detection).

Housekeeping Policy

Students should leave their residential units clean upon leaving campus. Failure to properly care for residential units and to leave them clean upon termination of occupancy, will result in charges to students’ accounts. Charges assessed for damage or cleaning costs in spaces not within the confines of individual student rooms will be divided among all occupants on the floor or building. The Housekeeping team oversees day-to-day cleaning of the common spaces on campus (e.g., common lounges, hallways, bathrooms) and empties the trash and the recycling from the shared closet space. If common spaces need additional attention, please email your Resident Assistant and Housekeeping@pmc.edu.

Housing License-Meal Plan Agreement

Meal plan information can be found here <https://pmc.edudine.com/meal-plans/>.

Keys and Lockouts Policy

Residents receive one residence hall room key upon check-in. When students move-out, they must connect with their Resident Assistant and/or Residence Life staff to complete Room Condition Reports and turn in their keys.

If students change rooms in the middle of the academic year, students may hold onto both sets of keys for up to 48 hours during the move and coordinate completion of Room Condition Reports with their Resident Assistant or Residence Life staff.

Student who have lost their room keys should report it to the Director of Residential Life immediately. Students will be charged a $250 fee to change the lock core and create replacement keys. Students may not duplicate residence hall keys.

Students locked out of their room or residence hall should call the RA on duty (if available) or Campus Safety (617-731-7187). Students locked out outside of RA duty hours will receive a $10.00 charge. Students must present their Pine Manor College student ID upon gaining access to their room.

The college will not permit entry to a student that is not designated to that room. If a student is found attempting to gain entry into a room that they are not assigned to, they will face consequences.

Kitchen Knife Use and Storage Policy

Students living in the traditional residence halls are permitted to possess one knife in their residential space for the purpose of food preparation/consumption; the blade length may not exceed four inches. When not in use, these utensils must be properly stored to mitigate the possibility of injury or harm.

Laundry Policy

Laundry facilities may be used free of charge by building residents. Misuse of this privilege and intentional damage to any laundry machine are grounds for payment of damages and/or termination of the housing license-meal plan agreement.

Liability for Loss Policy

Pine Manor College assumes no responsibility, and does not provide insurance or any other financial protection, for residents, family member occupants, their guests, or their respective property. Residents are advised to obtain their own renters insurance protection against loss, theft, or damage of personal property (such as computers, shoes, cell phones, jewelry, cameras, etc.).

Move-In and Check-Out Policy

Residents must check in to their campus residences during designated move-in dates and times only, and must remove their possessions and check out by the date assigned by Pine Manor College. Before checking out of their campus residence, student residents must schedule an appointment at least 48 hours in advance with a Residence Life staff member to review the condition of their space (or complete Express Check-Out when available). Residents are considered to be checked out only after they have vacated their residence, held a check-out inspection with the appropriate Residence Life staff member (or completed Express Check-Out), and returned all residence keys to Housing. Fines will be imposed for failure to complete these procedures. Items left in student housing after a student's official move-out date will be considered abandoned and fees may be assessed.

Noise Policy

Every resident is entitled to reasonable study and considerate rest conditions in all campus housing. Any resident may request that any other resident or group of residents cease any activity that is interfering with their ability to study, rest, or quietly enjoy the community. When a reasonable request is made in one of these situations, a resident must comply or face possible conduct action. (See Quiet Hours)

Open Flame Policy

Open flames are not permitted in any Pine Manor College residential facility. This includes, but is not limited to, candles, incense, smoking, and the burning of any materials or other flame-emitting articles. For the purposes of this section, “smoking,” or “smoking of tobacco products,” includes use of electronic cigarettes. If candles or incense are discovered they will be confiscated. Residents will be billed for any damage caused by their use of open flames. See list of Damage Charges.

Painting Policy

Students may not paint their and/or any other residents’ residence hall rooms.

Posting/Offensive Materials Policy

Any materials posted in common/public areas are subject to approval by Residential Life staff. The outsides of resident doors are considered common/public space. Residents who are concerned by materials posted in common areas should consult with a Residence Life staff member immediately. Residence Life staff will investigate and, if necessary, conduct meetings to address the situation.

Propped Doors Policy

Exterior residence hall doors should remain closed at all times and not propped open. Students should not allow non-Pine Manor community members into the residence halls. If students do not have their PMC ID to access the residence hall, they should call Campus Safety for entry.

Students should notify their RA or campus safety right away if they notice exterior doors not properly shutting and locking and/or if they see non-PMC community members enter the building unlawfully.

Public Health and Communicable Diseases Policy

Residents should have up-to-date immunizations before arriving on campus. Routine immunizations include meningococcal immunizations, tetanus-diphtheria, measles, mumps, rubella, polio, hepatitis B, and chickenpox. Influenza is also recommended. In the event of an outbreak of a communicable disease, the infected resident(s) will need to secure housing off-campus until they receive medical clearance. If off-campus options are not available, Pine Manor College will work with County Public Health guidelines, and may need to relocate the infected resident to a quarantine area on campus.

Students that have waived their immunization records or students without immunizations on file will also need to leave campus if an outbreak of a communicable disease occurs.

Quiet Hours/Courtesy Hours Policy

Quiet hours are:

- 11:00pm to 8:00am Sunday through Thursday nights and into the following morning, and
- 1:00am to 9am on Friday and Saturday nights into the following morning.

During these hours residents are expected to refrain from excessive noise and other disruptive activities. Non-designated quiet times are to be considered “courtesy hours,” during which residents and guests must be respectful of their peers’ studying, resting, and sleeping, as well as, a request for more quiet. During reading days and final examination week, quiet hours will be extended to 24 Hour Quiet in all residence halls. Residents needing more quiet time may apply for the 24-Hour Quiet Floor. (See Noise Policy)

Renter's Insurance Policy

The College encourages all students to purchase renter's insurance for their residence hall rooms and belongings in case of unforeseen damage or theft. Students' families' homeowners insurance may cover students' residence hall rooms; however, students should check with the policy and coverage with their insurance carriers.

Repairs, Maintenance, and Alterations Policy

Campus facilities performs and/or oversees all maintenance and repairs on campus. If something on campus needs attention, repair requests should be submitted to workorders@pmc.edu.

Submission of a work order grants permission for facilities staff to enter students' residences without notice (unless it is specified on the work order) during reasonable hours to provide service, repairs, improvements, or maintenance. Pine Manor College reserves the right to enter a room for emergency services and safety inspections.

If repairs or maintenance are needed due to negligence or improper use by residents or by their guests, the College will charge residents for any costs. The College will apply room damage costs to residents' student accounts after sign-off by a staff member. In the event that a major repair to a room is necessary, Pine Manor College reserves the right to relocate the resident(s) to an alternate space during that time. Should repairs be necessary over and above normal wear and tear, damage charges will be assessed to the resident.

Any questions regarding charges should be directed to the Director of Operations and the Director of Residential Life.

Residents may not remove any Pine Manor College property/furniture from their residences or from Pine Manor College grounds or buildings.

Residence Assignments Policy

Residence assignments are made either for the academic year or year-round. Students returning to on campus housing in the fall may select their rooms during the Housing Selection process the previous spring. Assignments are made for entering students during the summer.

Changes in residence assignments require the permission of the Director of Residential Life. No changes in residence will occur before the third week of classes of any semester or can be made without approval. Before or after this two-week block of time, requests for room changes will ONLY be granted in the event of an emergency or verified medical need. Students may only switch rooms once per academic year.

Pine Manor College reserves the right to assign roommates to rooms. Residents may request their own roommates or they may indicate that they are willing to have Pine Manor College assign another student to their room.

A roommate can be assigned at any time during the academic year, so students living in double rooms without a roommate must keep the other side of the room clean and free of their belongings.

Pine Manor College reserves the right to change room assignments based on College need. Under certain circumstances, residents may be assigned to a residence for a temporary period of time, to be determined by Pine Manor College. In such cases, residents must move to a permanent (annual) assignment at the request of Pine Manor College. Billing will reflect both temporary and permanent assignments.

Residence assignments are informed by various information and documentation provided by the resident including but not limited to; class year, the gender identity by which the student identifies, and requested accommodations like a registered emotional support animal and/or food allergies.

Right of Entry Policy

Authorized representatives of the College reserve the right to enter student rooms without notice for purposes of inspection, inventory, verification of occupancy, to abate a public nuisance, maintenance and repair, housekeeping, health and safety issues, and/or to uphold interests to the College's mission and community standards. The College also reserves the right to inspect and to allow law enforcement authorities the right to inspect students' rooms and its contents with little or no notice when probable cause exists to indicate any violation of policy. The College is not liable for damage and/or loss from such entry.

Roofs Policy

No one is permitted on the roof of any facility.

Room and Board (Meals) Policy

All residential students must purchase one of the meal plan options during the academic year. Commuter students may purchase meal plans, if they so choose.

Students must pay room and board fees to live in College housing as listed on www.pmc.edu. People not currently matriculated (enrolled) at Pine Manor College may not live with students in the residence halls.

Room Capacity Policy

Traditional residence hall rooms (single and double) have a capacity of five (5) people.

When assigning rooms, one person will be assigned to single rooms and two people will be assigned to doubles. In the case that Pine Manor College has not placed two people in a double room, the College refers to this as an open double. Pine Manor College reserves the right to place another student in an open double at any time.

At times, Pine Manor College may need to assign three students to a double room due to capacity. Students in triples will receive the option to de-triple as beds become available.

Room Changes (See Residence Assignments) Policy

Roommate Agreement Policy

Any resident living with a roommate is required to complete a roommate agreement and attend a roommate agreement meeting with the Resident Assistant (RA) within the first two weeks of occupancy. Failure to complete the roommate agreement and/or attend the roommate agreement meeting could result in an administrative amend.

The roommate agreement is the official way that community standards are set for a shared living space in the residential communities at Pine Manor College. Failure to live within the expectations set out in the roommate agreement may result in judicial proceedings, an administrative move, a behavioral contract, or a cancellation of the Housing License-Meal Plan Agreement. Roommates have the right to renegotiate the roommate contract agreement based upon changing needs within the living space. A new roommate contract agreement meeting will be conducted and a new agreement signed within two weeks in the event that any new roommate is added to the living space.

Room Condition and Furniture Policy

Upon moving into a room, residents are issued a Room Condition Report (RCR). This must be completed in detail and returned to the Office of Residence Life within three (3) calendar days of move-in. Accurate and complete information on this form will prevent residents from being charged for damage or loss of items that occurred prior to their occupancy.

The cost of any damaged or missing furniture that is not indicated on the RCR form will be assessed to the resident. Residents are responsible for any damage that occurs in their room. The College will use students' housing deposits to cover the costs of damages outside of regular usage and/or missing or extraneous furniture or item removal and/or replacement. Pine Manor College furniture (including bed frames and mattresses) may not be removed from its assigned room. Exceptions may be made for mattresses only in case of medical need. Pine Manor College mattresses are extra firm and of standard twin size. A letter from a doctor must be submitted to the Accessibility Services Coordinator, who will then authorize the mattress storage and contact Residence Life for removal.

Residents are expected to give reasonable care to their room and its furnishings, maintaining sanitary conditions acceptable to Pine Manor College. It is residents' responsibility to keep their living space free from food and debris, which could attract rodents and other pests.

Common area furniture must stay in the designated common area (e.g., common areas/pits, lounges, lobbies). The College will divide the financial costs accrued from loss or destruction to common areas among students in the building, on the floor, or in the village unless individuals accept responsibility to a given incident.

Room Selection Policy

At the end of spring semester returning students may participate in the residence hall room selection process to determine their housing for the upcoming fall semester. Rising seniors have priority in this process, followed by rising juniors, and rising sophomores. Students gather at a specified time, based on randomly assigned lottery numbers, and choose their rooms based on their lottery numbers. Students have the option of specialty housing at this time.

The Office of Residence Life maintains a single room waiting list for the upcoming academic year that starts during Room Selection of the previous year. Students who received housing accommodations have priority for single rooms.

Screens Policy

Residents who remove and/or tamper with room or common area window screens are in violation of College policy, and are responsible for damage/replacement charges.

Shower/Tub/Toilet Stall Usage Policy

Showers, tubs, and toilet stalls are to be used by one person at a time. It is prohibited to have more than one person in a stall at any given time.

Students are required to clean up after themselves and be respectful of their shared spaces.

Other than appropriate materials (e.g. toilet paper and tampons in the toilets, toothpaste and mouthwash in the sinks) inappropriate substances should not go down the drains (e.g., food in the sinks, paper towels in the toilets) as these materials cause trouble with drainage and cleanliness.

Squatting Policy

Individuals occupying Pine Manor College facilities without a current and approved Housing License-Meal Plan Agreement will be considered trespassers, and will be asked to leave. The College reserves the right to call Brookline Police when guests do not leave after being asked by College officials. Exceptions are outlined in the Guest Policy.

Storage Policy

Students may store their belongings in their residential hall rooms during the academic year and if they rent a room throughout the summer. The storage of any materials (e.g., boxes, furniture) in common areas or unoccupied spaces of the residential facilities is not permitted any time during the calendar year and will be removed.

Students may not store their belongings in private pods or storage containers on campus.

Student Property Policy

The College assumes no responsibility for damage or loss of personal belongings. The safekeeping of student property is solely the responsibility of each individual student, and students should not expect a reimbursement from the College in the event of loss or damages.

Student rooms should be locked at all times and valuables secured.

Students that live on-campus should insure their property through renters' insurance or through confirmation of coverage through their parents' homeowners' insurance.

Subletting Policy

Subletting of Pine Manor College housing or facilities is prohibited.

Trash and Recycling Policy

Residents and their guests must use the proper facilities for trash and/or recycling. If items are left outside of residential hall rooms in common/shared spaces, Residential Life staff or facilities will consider the items trash. Residents of that space will be charged a removal fee for these items. Residents may not place their own trash or recycling containers in public spaces.

Pine Manor College has single-stream recycling which includes paper, glass, and most plastic. Items placed in recycling bins should be clean and free of food, grease, and/or other non-recyclable debris.

Unauthorized Presence Policy

Residents are not permitted in areas and rooms that are locked and/or for which they have not been assigned access (e.g., empty rooms, food services areas, storage closets/areas, mechanical rooms, etc.)

Vacation/School Closure Policy

The College closes the residence halls for Thanksgiving and winter, spring, and summer breaks. Students interested in housing during the vacation period must complete an application, be financially cleared, and receive approval from the Director of Residential Life. Students in 9-month housing and/or summer housing will endure separate costs, may be placed in different rooms for the abbreviated time, and may have access to the dining hall. All College policies remain in effect during these times. .

Windows/Building Ledges Policy

Residents are not allowed to sit on window or building ledges. Storage of any materials on window ledges/porches is not permitted. Residents who permit any item to fall, drop, or be thrown from any residence window will be in violation of policy. Residents are not allowed to exit or enter a room via a window except in the event of life safety.

COMMUNITY STANDARDS PROCESS

Upon matriculation at Pine Manor College or arrival on campus for non-degree seeking students, students agree to honor the policies and the principles as described in the Pine Manor College Student Handbook. The Pine Manor College community as defined earlier shares in the responsibility to create an educational setting and culture to foster these expectations of each other, which allows for constant growth, compassion, and empathy. We work to hold each other accountable for our actions and use education as a tool to foster student development, while not jeopardizing the values and the needs of the community.

If students do not conduct themselves in accordance with the aforementioned Pine Manor College's policies, standards and/or principles, students will receive notices of community standards violations based upon incident reports received. Once students receive their alleged violation letters, students have the opportunity to go through a community standards process to accept or deny admittance to the violations. Pine Manor College is working to ensure the community standards process is one that is inspired by the restorative justice framework. This framework entails the College and student(s) working together to repair any harm that has occurred and the outcome will be educational in nature with punitive amends, at times. (You will find more information below)

The College ensures the community standards process remains fair, transparent, and equitable as we seek the truth. This process does not mirror or take the place of the United States' legal system. The processes and rights differ and one is not contingent on the other. Depending on the community standards violations, Pine Manor College may engage police authorities and/or counsel as necessary. Students also have the right to call the Brookline Police and/or press charges. Students' decisions to involve the police or press charges, does not affect Pine Manor College's community standards process.

During the community standards process, Pine Manor College has the right to temporarily or permanently terminate the relationship with the alleged student(s) to ensure the safety of the individuals involved and the community. This termination can occur at any time.

In this section, Pine Manor College outlines the Community Standards and the process used by Student Affairs when an alleged violation occurs. The following applies to individual student and student group complaints. In addition to the standards outlined in the Student Handbook, residential students must also abide by Pine Manor College's community standards of behavior specific to the residence halls.

The Office of Restorative Practices and Community Standards handles adjudication of alleged policy violations. All conduct processes use a preponderance standard of evidence, which is defined as more likely than not. The process operates using a fundamental fairness standard and all individuals are entitled to the same elements of fundamental fairness, including the opportunities to have others present during these processes.

Restorative Discipline Practices and Background

Pine Manor College is working towards taking transformative/restorative approaches to discipline. Restorative justice is an effective alternative to punitive responses to wrongdoing. Inspired by indigenous traditions, it brings together persons harmed with persons responsible for harm in a safe and respectful space, promoting dialogue, accountability, and a stronger sense of community.

Restorative Approach

A philosophy or guiding principle (not a program or specific activity) that sees relationships as central to learning, growth and a healthy school climate for students and staff/faculty.

Restorative Practices enable us to integrate and normalize this approach within a school culture.

PMC's goal is to, over time, establish a comprehensive, whole-school approach that incorporates various restorative practices throughout the college, with an emphasis on building a culture of respect and care. In the PMC community, these practices may include: language that invites and encourages curiosity, empathy, respect, trust, honesty, compassion, accountability, inclusion, repairing harm and collaboration; community harm circles; and, conferencing.

Restorative Discipline

A focus on relationships and community, rather than on punishment (often isolation) for breaking rules; this is not to say that there will not be amends, or that these processes will replace our current processes of conduct conferences; instead it will serve as a choice and supplement to our current process outlined below. Furthermore, with relationships being in the forefront, the accountability comes from the harmer recognizing the impact of their actions on others and agreeing to repair the harm caused. The process includes the person or persons harmed in deciding on the consequences. Restorative consequences (amends) may be apologies, restitution, community service, and/or other agreed-upon ways to make amends and move forward.

PMC recognizes that the process of discipline and the process of learning should be aligned. The process of disciplining has far more in common with teaching than the impersonal imposition of amends through the criminal legal system. Like all learning, the capacity to discipline students lies in the quality of the caring relationship between student and staff/faculty members. With this in the forefront of our minds, PMC is striving to take steps to support and cultivate supportive relationships to ensure the safety and well-being of all members of our community.

Community Harm Circle

Community Harm Circles ("RJ Circles") provide an opportunity for community members to come together to address harmful behavior in a process that explores harms and needs, obligations, and necessary engagement.

Conferences

A Conference includes meeting with the Director of Restorative Practices & Community Standards (or assigned Student Affairs staff) on any type of alleged violation of our community standards. Conference Facilitator may impose any amend as appropriate if a Community Harm Circle process is not chosen by the alleged student(s).

If students participate in the Conference, the assigned Conference Facilitator will meet with the alleged student(s), evaluate and investigate the incident, assign any amend(s) as they see appropriate, formally notify the student(s) of the decision, and ensure completion of any amend(s) by the designated date.

For incidents involving a large number of students, complex cases, and/or current caseload other members of the Student Affairs team may assist the Conference Facilitator in meeting with students and gathering information.

The Restorative and Community Standards Processes

1. Any person may file an Incident Report (IR) concerning alleged behaviors inconsistent with PMC values of any student or registered student organization. The IR can be submitted online or the complaint can be shared via email or in person to the Director of Restorative Practices and Community Standards, campus safety, or students affairs staff who will then complete the IR form.
 - a. The reporter should submit the IR as soon as possible after the alleged misconduct occurred.
 - b. Once an incident report is submitted, the incident report becomes confidential, private information. Incident reports are not shared with students, their families, or others outside of Pine Manor College employees involved in the case unless subpoenaed.
 - c. The IRs automatically distribute to:
 - i. Campus Safety Site Supervisor
 - ii. Dean of Student Affairs
 - iii. Director of Restorative Practices and Community Standards
 - iv. Director of Operations
 - v. Additional parties, as needed (e.g., representatives from King's Education or ELI, if applicable)
 - vi. Pine Manor College's on-call staff
 - d. The IR will also be recorded in College records for statistical purposes. All reports are considered confidential and fall within FERPA regulations.
2. The Director of Restorative Practices and Community Standards (or a member of Student Affairs in their absentia) will determine whom the case should be assigned to on the Student Affairs team.
3. The Director of Community Standards and/or Conference Facilitator will issue conference letters to involved parties to meet and discuss the case¹. This conference will start the investigation process and provide an official setting to hear and establish the facts of the case, determine responsibility for alleged behaviors, and recommend amends, if appropriate.
4. At the conference, students should expect:
 - a. The opportunity for the student to voice their view of the incident.
 - b. The opportunity to provide any materials (e.g., pictures, social media clips, documentation) to support their story.
 - c. The opportunity to provide the Conference Facilitator with witnesses or other credible sources that they would like the Conference Facilitator to meet with about the case. (The Conference Facilitator will make a concerted effort to meet with the named witness or sources. If those persons do not respond or cannot make the arrangements to meet in a timely manner, the Conference Facilitator may decide to move forward without their input.)
 - d. The opportunity to have a support person such as an advisor, coach, professor, or friend present. If students choose to invite a third party, then:
 - i. The third party may not be an attorney or family member, and may not talk or present during the proceedings.

¹ If the involved parties meet with a member(s) of the Student Affairs team to discuss the incident before the Director has the opportunity to send out conference letters, those meetings may replace the more formal process in which case the involved part(ies) may not receive a formal conference letter..

- ii. The third party may write down comments, questions, or notes for the student.
 - iii. The student waives their FERPA rights to allow the Conference Facilitator to proceed in the case and refer to previous incidents (if necessary) with the third party present.
 - iv. The student may ask the third party person to leave at any time.
 - v. That the conference will not be audio/visual recorded or taped in any manner.
 - e. The opportunity to meet again, if needed by the Facilitator to gather more information or clarify questions.
5. After the Conference Facilitator has met with all the appropriate parties, the Conference process may:
- a. Continue and the Conference Facilitator will make decisions of responsibility and amends in a closed deliberation process and send a follow-up letter to the student stating responsibility for the incident. If found responsible, students will have amends to complete within a designated time outlined in the letter. Students will have the opportunity to appeal OR
 - b. If the respondent admitted harm, the conference may move into the Circle process (see Circles and Restorative Practices section for details).

Circles and Restorative Practices

Consistent with the philosophy of restorative practices, those most directly involved in an incident (responsible and impacted parties) have the opportunity to participate in a restorative process (circle/conversation) before any decisions are made. This is especially appropriate if the offender/responsible party has admitted to the offense. Participation by either party is strictly voluntary. If either party refuses participation before a decision, all parties will be informed of the decision when it is made and again offered the opportunity to participate in a restorative conference.

Should the complainant or offender refuse to participate in a circle, there may still be a restorative process for the benefit of others affected by the offense.

Who's involved in a Circle?

- Responsible Parties: the individuals (respondents) whose actions have harmed others and/or the community
- Impacted Parties: those who were directly harmed by the respondents' actions
- Affected Parties: others who consider themselves or their community to have been harmed by the actions of the respondents
- Supporting Parties: friends or family of either the respondents or the affected parties
- Facilitators: Trained PMC staff who facilitate the Circle

What takes place at a Circle?

Circles bring all parties together to meet, talk about what happened, and settle on a plan to repair the harm.

In a typical Circle:

- Each person introduces themselves and their relationship within the Circle.
- Responsible Parties share what happened before, during, and after the incident, and how they feel about what happened.

- Affected Parties and Impacted Parties share what happened before, during, and after the incident, how they feel about what happened, and ask questions.
- Supporting Parties are invited to share thoughts or feelings about what they have heard.
- Facilitators will ask questions to help guide the process. Facilitators are multipartial, rather than impartial as they are committed to supporting and assisting all parties in helping each person tell their story well.
- Once everyone has spoken, the group will brainstorm a list of options for repairing the harm done. Choosing from the list, the group decides which options could best repair the harm and address the most important issues.
- If the group chooses to create a written Agreement, the facilitators will record the options chosen and compile the Agreement, which is signed by all parties.
- The Facilitators provide formal closure to the Circle. Participants are encouraged to contact their Facilitator with any concerns about non-compliance.

What are the benefits of using Circles to resolve complaints?

- Rather than focusing on what policies have been violated, Circles instead help identify who has been hurt and what must be done to repair the harm.
- In a Circle, all parties work together to develop an agreement that resolves the issue. All parties must assent for agreement to be reached. All parties leave the Circle feeling satisfied about both the process and the outcome.
- Circles help Responsible Parties restore their standing in their communities and repair any relationships that were damaged by their actions. Respondents often report that their ties within the community are strengthened as a result of having participated in the Circle.
- Circles provide Impacted Parties a safe, facilitated space to tell the Respondent how their actions caused harm. Impacted parties play an active part in deciding how the Respondent can best repair the harm done.
- Circles allow Supporting Parties to describe more holistically how what occurred has affected the party they are supporting.

If students participate in a Community Harm Circle, the Director of Restorative Practices & Community Standards (or assigned Student Affairs staff) will meet with the alleged student(s) to evaluate and investigate the incident (pre-conference), organize the Community Harm Circle, and facilitate the circle as the keeper.

After the circle, the Circle/ Conference Facilitator will write up the decision(s) reached by the members of the Community Harm Circle Process, formally notify the student(s) of the decision, and ensure completion of any amend(s) by the designated date.

Appeal Process

All cases are appealed to the Dean of Student Affairs within three business days and by 5PM of sending out the amend letter. After those 3 business days, appeals will no longer be considered.

To appeal a decision, students must submit a written email to the Dean of Student Affairs stating the reason for an appeal. The Dean will work to make a decision on the appeal as soon as possible, but no later than 10 business days during the academic calendar year.

If the Dean of Students made the initial decision in a case, the College President will oversee the Appeals process.

Recommendations for Preparing a Letter of Appeal

The following offers suggestions on how to prepare a letter of appeal. It is recommended that you carefully review the appeal process and any correspondence or information you have received pertaining to the case. Meeting appeal deadlines is absolutely critical or your appeal may not be considered.

When writing an appeal letter you should brainstorm a list of every reason why the appeal should be granted. You should then review the list of reasons and compare it to the three appeal reasons or grounds the College considers:

- A lack of fairness in the procedures or investigative process that may alter the outcome.
- Significant new information (previously unknown) that has been revealed or discovered which materially alter the facts of the matter and may alter the outcome.
- A lack of fairness in the investigation/conference process given the findings.

Determine which reasons listed above best matches the list you have brainstormed. If you determine that there are reasons to appeal that you believe meet the College's criteria above, then you should prepare an appeal letter.

Appeal Letter

The appeal letter should be typed and have an introductory paragraph, a body offering supporting information, and a conclusion. The appeal letter only needs to be one or, at most, two typed pages. Students may lean on their Student Success Coach, Dean of Student Affairs, or other trusted mentors to assist them with their appeal letter.

In the introduction, you should introduce yourself and state the grounds of your appeal (see one of the above three items from the bulleted list). The introduction should provide background on your incident and end with a brief statement of why your appeal should be granted.

In the body of your appeal letter, you should explain and outline the grounds of the appeal and provide examples. You may want to address the following question under the ground you have identified.

A lack of fairness in the procedures or investigative process that may alter the outcome.

- What was the procedural error and who made the error?
- How did this error materially and unfairly affect the outcome of the case? In other words, what difference did the procedural error make?

Significant new information (previously unknown) that has been revealed or discovered which materially alter the facts of the matter and may alter the outcome.

- What is the new evidence and what is the relevance and impact of this new evidence to the case?
- Why was this new evidence not reasonably available to you during the initial investigation?

A lack of fairness in the amending process given the finding.

- Is the amend inappropriate (i.e., too severe or too lenient) for the conduct? If you believe it is, what information or evidence supports this claim?
- Does the evidence presented in the case support the findings by the Conference Facilitator? If it doesn't, describe how.

When you finish the main body, you should then write your conclusion. The conclusion should briefly restate reasons why the appeal should be granted. At the end of the letter make sure to add a complimentary closing prior to your signature. This sign-off phrase shows your respect and appreciation for the individuals who are considering the request in your letter. Examples of complimentary closing typically used in letters are “Sincerely” or “Respectfully.”

Six Tips for Constructing the Letter of Appeal

1. Be Factual: Include as much factual detail as possible and if possible reference your comments to supporting documentation. Avoid dramatizing the situation.
2. Be Specific: If an appeal or request depends on particular facts which the decision maker will want to verify.
3. Stick to the Point: Don't clutter your letter with information or requests that have no essential connection to the main message.
4. Do Not Try to Manipulate the Reader: Threatening, name-calling, persuading, begging, pleading, flattery and making extravagant promises are manipulative and ineffective methods.
5. How to Talk About Feelings: It is tempting to overstate the case when something is important to us. When feelings are legitimate part of a message state it as a fact but again avoid being overly dramatic.
6. Be Brief: It is more work to write a good letter than a long one. Decision makers appreciate the extra effort that goes into composing a good short letter.

Review Your Appeal Carefully Before Submitting

If you have access to a word processing program with spell checking (i.e. Microsoft Word), make use of it. Re-read your letter and check for spelling, grammar, and context.

It is also recommended to have someone carefully review your appeal before you submit it. Ideally, this person is someone who is unbiased, can give you constructive feedback on the rationale and supporting documentation for your appeal, and has reviewed the applicable college policies and procedures pertaining to your case.

Since this is your process, the PMC student appealing their case should write and submit their appeal and not ask parents, friends, faculty/staff members, or attorneys to write on their behalf.

Amends

Pine Manor College takes a restorative justice approach to community standards and amends. This means we try to use the community standards process and amends as a tool for learning, educating, and relationship building. Pine Manor College recognizes that people make mistakes, and between and within those mistakes lays the opportunity for growth and change.

While restorative justice is our preferred approach, it is the responsibility of the Division of Student Affairs to keep the community safe. If a community standard violation breaches on the safety or perceived safety of Pine Manor College students, guests, employees, friends of the college, or college property, the College may take a more immediate disciplinary approach up to and including expulsion, which is a permanent dismissal from the College. Similarly, repetitive violations may result in a different approach to amends up to and including expulsion.

Behavioral Agreement

A behavioral agreement is usually a document that outlines a reciprocal agreement between the student and the College. The behavioral agreement may include any number of amends and/or specific requirements for students to follow. Behavioral agreements may be used in community standards cases or any event where the College is concerned for a student's success. For example, if a student has just returned from a semester away, a behavioral agreement may be put in place to ensure the student's successful re-admission and transition back to campus. There is no requirement that a conference precede the issuance of a behavioral agreement. However, when possible, the student will meet with the Dean of Student Affairs or the Dean's designee to review the contract.

Disciplinary Probation

Disciplinary probation places the student in a marginal relationship to the College without affecting the student's academic standing. During disciplinary probation the student must demonstrate they are capable of functioning in a way that does not violate the College's policies and procedures. A second violation to Community Standards while a student is on disciplinary probation, even of a minor nature, could warrant immediate suspension or dismissal from the College.

While a student is on disciplinary probation, the student may not hold office in any student organization or represent the College in any official capacity. In some cases, co-curricular activities, student leader positions, and/or access to campus grounds and facilities may be curtailed.

Educational Assignment

An educational amend is a required activity intended to involve the student in a positive learning experience related to the student's unacceptable behavior. Educational assignments allow students to reflect upon inappropriate behavior, to understand why the behavior was inappropriate, and to educate other students so they do not find themselves in similar circumstances. This type of amend may include but is not limited to: (a) engaging in a campus or community service project; (b) attending or presenting a program related to the implications of the student's conduct; (c) writing a paper; (d) interviewing someone; and (e) engaging in some type of personal assessment or workshop.

Emergency Action/Interim Sanction

In such cases where the continued presence of the respondent creates undue distress or threat to the campus community, the Dean of Student Affairs (or designee) may take emergency action. Such action may restrict the respondent's access to areas of campus or remove the respondent from campus or campus facilities for an undermined timeframe. This amend may last until the student's case is completed through the Community Standards process. The amend remains in place until the Dean of Student Affairs (or designee) lifts the amend.

If the respondent is removed from campus, the respondent may not participate in any College activities during that time including, but not limited to, coursework, athletics, on-campus work and/or work study, and/or co-curricular activities. Students that receive this amend who are seen on campus during this emergency action/interim amend timeframe are subject to immediate suspension or expulsion from the College. If the respondent is immediately suspended or expelled, the original case may no longer be considered unless there are other students involved.

The College fully recognizes that taking emergency action such as an interim suspension from the College creates undue hardship for students and their families. When an interim suspension is put in place, the College will likely inform the students' parents/guardians. The College has a list of area hotels available for students and can assist in arranging transportation off-campus that will be credited to the student's account. The College will not cover the costs of accommodating students during this timeframe. Again, we recognize the difficult situation this causes and will work to expedite cases where an interim amend is in place.

Due to the immediacy of this amend, a conference is not required before emergency actions/interim amends are implemented.

Expulsion

Expulsion is the most serious College disciplinary action and involves permanent dismissal from the College. Expulsion involves the following: (a) forfeiture of all rights and degrees not actually conferred; (b) withdrawal from all courses; (c) forfeiture of tuition and fees (including, but not limited to, tuition and room and board); (d) prohibited from visiting the College as a visitor or guest. Any exceptions to these actions must be in writing from the Dean of Student Affairs (or their designee).

When an expulsion is instituted the following people/offices will receive notification: Dean of Student Affairs, Dean of the College, Associate Dean of Student Affairs, Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, Director of Restorative Practices and Community Standards, Campus Safety, Director of Operations, Director of Residential Life (when student resides on campus), Athletic Coach (if applicable), College Registrar, Director of Student Accounts, Director of Financial Aid, Director of Student Services, On-Call team, and student's parent/guardian on record with the College.

When a student is expelled they will receive a letter and/or email detailing the terms of the expulsion including when to leave campus. As student's leave campus, they must turn in their PMC ID, residence hall key (if applicable), and parking sticker to Campus Safety or the Student Affairs staff member present at the time. Failure to turn in any of these items will result in a fine of $150.00.

While we do not anticipate students who are expelled will come onto campus without approval from the Dean of Student Affairs, Campus Safety has received direction to call the Brookline Police Department for students that trespass onto campus.

Letter of Warning

A student may receive a formal warning letter regarding behaviors as the outcome of a conduct matter. Students should consider the letter an opportunity to educate themselves around appropriate behavioral expectations. If students find themselves responsible for violating community standards again, students will likely receive more significant amends their second time through the community standards process.

No Contact Order

Individuals who have been the target of unwanted contact from another student can request a No Contact Order (NCO) and/or the College can issue a No Contact Order if it is in the best interest of the College community. A No Contact Order requires that the students involved have no further contact with the identified parties in any form (physical, verbal, electronic, or otherwise) or that they do not request another party to have contact on their behalf. Violating a No Contact

Order violates the College's community standards and could lead to amends up to and including expulsion.

It is the College's practice to put in No Contact Orders for all parties involved in an incident regardless of alleged perpetrator and survivor. Given the situation, friends or roommates of involved parties may also be issued No Contact Orders.

Suspension

The College may restrict or suspend a student's access to College facilities and services if it is determined that such restrictions or suspensions are in the best interest of the student and/or College. Limitations on College activities and access are imposed for a specified period of time and may include but are not limited to: (a) restricted participation in any campus activity; (b) ineligibility to receive or maintain any award from the College; (c) restricted entrance into various College buildings; (d) forfeiture of all rights and grades not yet conferred; (e) withdrawal from all courses; (f) forfeiture of tuition and fees (including, but not limited to, tuition and room and board); (g) prohibited from visiting the College as a visitor or guest. Any exceptions to these actions must be in writing from the Dean of Student Affairs (or their designee).

When a suspension is instituted the following people/offices will receive notification: Dean of Student Affairs, Dean of the College, Associate Dean of Student Affairs, Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, Director of Restorative Practices and Community Standards, Campus Safety, Director of Operations, Director of Residential Life, Athletic Coach (if applicable), College Registrar, Director of Student Accounts, Director of Financial Aid, Director of Student Services, On-Call team, and student's parent/guardian on record with the College.

When a student is suspended they will receive an email and/or letter detailing the terms of the suspension including when to leave campus. As student's leave campus, they must turn in their PMC ID, residence hall key (if applicable), and parking sticker to Campus Safety or the Director of Restorative Practices and Community Standards. Failure to turn in any of these items will result in a fine of $250.00.

Reinstatement

When a student has concluded the suspension period and completed any conditions accompanying the suspension, the student must submit a letter to the Dean of Student Affairs to request reinstatement with evidence that they have satisfied the terms of suspension. The student may return to the College only after the Dean of Student Affairs (or the Dean's designee) has made an affirmative decision.

Re-entering the Community Circle

All students who have been excluded from the community for whatever reason will be offered the opportunity to participate in re-entry support circle. The re-entry circle provides for a student who has been suspended from the PMC community or residence halls, the opportunity to be reintegrated into the community in a positive way. This Circle is important in re-engaging the student, who hopefully has had time to reflect on the incident, and focus on what needs to be done moving forward. Participants of this circle may include the student's: Student Success Coach, Academic Advisor, Athletic Coach, Friend, Family member, Dean of Student Affairs, Director of Restorative Practices and Community Standards, Professors, etc.; anyone that can support the student's reintegration and future success at PMC. In this circle, a plan of support may or may not be produced to keep all parties accountable in ensuring the success of the student and to keep the student accountable for his/her own success as well.

Violation of Suspension

While we do not anticipate students who are suspended will come onto campus without approval from the Dean of Student Affairs, Campus Safety has received direction to call the Brookline Police Department for students that trespass onto campus.

Restitution

Restitution is compensation required of students who engaged in theft or misuse, damage, or destruction of institutional, group, or private property.

If restitution is used, the maximum restitution fees include:

Violation of the fire safety policy: $250

Violation of the alcohol policy violation

- 1st violation: $50
- 2nd violation: $75
- 3rd violation: $100

Violation of the drug policy, with the exception of smoking/burning marijuana:

- 1st violation: $75
- 2nd violation: $100
- 3rd violation: $150

Violation of the smoking policy, includes cigarettes, electronic cigarettes, and/or marijuana: $250 (this cost is higher since it includes a violation of the fire safety policy)

The Conference Facilitator will determine the amount, form, and method of payment for restitution.

Residential-Specific Amends

In addition to the amends listed, residential students may be subject to the following amends regarding their residential life and housing privileges:

Administrative Move

Residential students can be required to move to another room within the housing system. If an administrative move is necessary, students will not be charged any additional costs and will be refunded, at a prorated rate, any differences.

Restriction/Revocation of Guest Privileges

This action restricts or removes guest privileges in campus housing, in campus facilities, or on campus grounds for a specified period of time.

Suspension from Residence Halls

Suspension from the Residence Halls involves the temporary removal of a student from the Residence Halls for a specified time with the understanding that the student may return and be in good standing at the completion of the suspension period. Suspension from the Residence Halls involves: (a) students shall forfeit housing fees for the semester; (b) students must refrain from visiting the Villages and Residence Halls premises except when engaged in official business with approval in writing from the Dean of Student Affairs (or designee) prior to returning to campus property.

When a Residence Hall suspension is instituted the following people/offices will receive notification: Dean of Student Affairs, Dean of the College, Associate Dean of Student Affairs,

Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, Director of Restorative Practices and Community Standards, Campus Safety, Director of Operations, Director of Residential Life, Athletic Coach (if applicable), College Registrar, Director of Student Accounts, Director of Financial Aid, Director of Student Services, On-Call team, and student's parent/guardian on record with the College.

When students are suspended they will receive an email and/or letter detailing the terms of the suspension including when to move-off campus. When students move off campus, they must turn in their residence hall key to Campus Safety or Student Affairs. In addition, students must get a new PMC ID (without residence hall access) and a commuter parking sticker (if applicable) from the Director of Student Services. Failure to turn in/switch out any of these items will result in a fine of $150.00.

Violation of Suspension

While we do not anticipate students who are suspended from the residence halls or villages will enter those facilities without approval from the Dean of Student Affairs, Campus Safety has received direction to call the Brookline Police Department for students that trespass into the Villages.

Termination of Housing Agreement

Serious disruption of the residence hall community can lead to students' removal from the residence halls. In addition, this action could affect students' future housing agreement status. There is no refund of any fees upon termination of an agreement. Students are responsible for paying the full term of the agreement and responsible for the costs associated with moving off campus.

When students are terminated from the residence halls, the following people/offices will receive notification: Dean of Student Affairs, Dean of the College, Associate Dean of Student Affairs, Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, Director of Restorative Practices and Community Standards, Campus Safety, Director of Operations, Director of Residential Life, Athletic Coach (if applicable), College Registrar, Director of Student Accounts, Director of Financial Aid, Director of Student Services, On-Call team, and student's parent/guardian on record with the College.

When students are terminated, they will receive an email and/or letter detailing the terms of the suspension including when to move-off campus. When students move off campus, they must turn in their residence hall key to Campus Safety or Student Affairs. In addition, students must get a new PMC ID (without residence hall access) and a commuter parking sticker (if applicable) from the Director of Student Services. Failure to turn in/switch out any of these items will result in a fine of $150.00.

Violation of Termination: While we do not anticipate students who are terminated from the residence halls or villages will enter those facilities without approval from the Dean of Student Affairs, Campus Safety has received direction to call the Brookline Police Department for students that trespass into the Villages.

Implementation of Amends

Amends take effect at the time they are determined, unless otherwise stated. If students indicate an intention to appeal, students must still follow the amend until the appeal is determined. Appeals must be filed in writing to the Dean of Student Affairs (see Appeal Process above) within 72 hours/3 business days of the delivery of the amend. In the event students do not follow through with their initial amend, another conference may be held to determine how to move forward with repairing harm.

Record Keeping

The Conference Facilitator and/or Director of Restorative Practices and Community Standards will ensure that all amends are completed by the specified date and will submit aggregate data regarding infractions and amends to the Dean of Student Affairs for compilation each semester. A record of disciplinary procedures and findings will be kept in students' educational files in the Division of Student Affairs for a minimum of seven years.

The Student Handbook provides an overview of Pine Manor College's departments, services, policies, and procedures relevant to all individuals enrolled in Pine Manor College classes. The College reserves the right to make changes affecting policies, fees, or any other matters in the Student Handbook at any time.

If the Division of Student Affairs amends the Student Handbook during the academic year, the Division will share the changes out with the community via email. Students should consider the links in the Student Handbook that lead directly to PMC web pages as extensions of the Student Handbook itself.

The Division of Student Affairs updates the Student Handbook as needed.. Please send suggestions and updates to Staci Weber, Dean of Student Affairs, at sweber@pmc.edu or Jammy Millet, Director of Restorative Practices & Community Standards, at jmillet@pmc.edu
